The Washington Middle School APPLAUSE will be presenting School House Rock Live! Jr. on May 25-27, 2011. The curtain in the Washington Middle School Auditorium, 1 North Fifth Street, Harrison, NJ will rise at 7:00PM for a family-friendly evening of educational song and dance. Admission is $10 for adults, $5 for senior citizens, and $5 for students in grades K-12. Tickets will be available at the door.

The sixty students of the WMS After-school Program Promoting Learning, Artistry, Unity, and Self- Esteem have been rehearsing since October, under the direction of Mrs. Eileen Winkleblech and Mr. Gerard Stahl, for their rendition of the Emmy-Award winning 1970s Saturday morning cartoon series. The show promises to have you singing along to catchy tunes about history, grammar, math, science and politics as the characters show Tom, a nerve-wracked school teacher nervous about his first day of teaching, how to win his students over with imagination and music!
